Re:     *United States v. Jamil Banks, 20 CR 284 (SHS)

Dear Judge Stein,

The Government writes on behalf of the parties to request respectfully that the Court further adjourn the conference currently scheduled for October 19, 2020 for approximately one additional month to a date and time that is convenient for the Court during the week of November 16, 2020 or thereafter by which time the parties anticipate having concluded their discussions of a pre-trial disposition. At present, the parties are continuing to consider the disposition of the related violation of supervised release proceedings in 03 CR 7 (SHS), in connection with which there are parallel indictments pending in state court. With the consent of the defendant, the Government requests respectfully that the Court exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act from October 19, 2020 through the date of any adjournment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) on the basis that the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial are outweighed here by the interests of the defendant in having further time in which to explore a pretrial disposition amidst the circumstances of the ongoing national emergency and the delays attendant to it with respect to achieving such a disposition, in particular on the global basis toward which the parties are working here.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS
Acting United States Attorney

cc: John Meringolo (Counsel to Defendant Jamil Banks) (by ECF)

The conference is adjourned to November 19, 2020, at 4:00 p.m. The time is excluded from calculation under the Speedy Trial Act from today until November 19, 2020. The Court finds that the ends of justice served by this continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).

Dated: New York, New York

SO ORDERED
